

How to check your child's Google history on the computer

To check Google history on any computer, go to Google search page and press Ctrl, Shift and H and it will reveal the history. Click on specific dates and see sites visited at those times.

* Very handy tool to see what your children have been looking at*

If the History is empty it is time to ask the child why they have erased the history!